Lion Rampant Medieval Wargaming Rules

Lion Rampant is a set of simple miniature wargaming rules designed for fighting historical or Hollywood battles in the medieval period, from the rise of the Normans to the Hundred Years' War and beyond. This period is well suited to retinue-sized games involving a few dozen models per side as it was a time of anarchy, feuds, and raiding.

To conclude, I was favorably impressed with Lion Rampant. It is not a detailed set of medieval rules, nor does it claim to be one. It is an elegant fast-play system which manages to capture a modicum of period feel without doing anything to offend my historical-puritan sensibilities, something which is certainly not true of many of today's ...

This game did, however, confirm the appeal of Lion Rampant and the fact that putting together forces for these rules is much more achievable for a slow painter like me (Eric has painted a whole Saracen army since Christmas!). Both Alastair and I have thoughts of painting some Wars of the Roses retinues to use with the rules too.
