Terror On The Titanic Choose

Terror on the Titanic by Jim Wallace was a second Choose Your Own Adventure book to catch my eye when I was looking to find a title to read for the PopSugar Reading Challenge. I decided that rather than have to choose between the Tower of London and the Titanic I'd just bring both home and read them.

Once when I read it, I saved the Titanic. I liked how if you are on page 9, you can choose what's going to happen next--it tells you if you choose this option, go to page 17. If you choose another option, go to page 42. I liked how the book says "You are on board the RMS Titanic." When I first got it, I was addicted to reading it!

The movie Titanic has always held a really special place in my heart. It is pretty much my go-to chick flick on the rainy days, the bad days, the crying days, and even the happy ones, as well. I first saw Titanic in theaters when I was a mere four years old (yes you read that correct). But I loved it so much on the big screen, that I begged my mom to take me back to see it.. three more times to ...
