By the way, this comma rule applies to all conjunctions, including and, or, and so. Do You Need a Comma After But? If you're wondering whether you need a comma after but, the answer is that you probably don't. The only time you need a comma after but is when it is immediately followed by an interrupter. An interrupter is a little word or phrase that interrupts a sentence to show emotion, tone, or emphasis.
